

Volunteer Work Camp Contractor Information

What is expected of a Work Camp Contractor?

Work Camp Contractors are needed to lead Work Camp Crews composed of 5 to 6 youth participants and 1 adult participant in home improvement projects. You do not need to be a licensed contractor or a professional, but you should be someone who is knowledgeable and experienced with home improvement. This means that you know how to safely operate a range of tools, have worked with different materials, and are able to teach others what you know.

What kind of project would I be doing as a Work Camp Contractor?

Projects include window and door replacement; building wheelchair ramps, decks, and stairs; installing skirting on mobile homes; widening interior doorways; installing vinyl tile; installing laminate T&G flooring; exterior painting and siding repair; etc. We do our best to match Work Camp Contractors with projects related to previous experience.

Do I need to draw up plans for my project?

No. Detailed plans and pictures are provided by email to Work Camp Contractors for review several weeks prior to the start of the camp. When you receive your plans, you will be asked to schedule a time to speak with one of our lead contractors. This meeting is intended to give you an opportunity to walk through the plans together and ask any questions you may have.

Do I need to bring my own tools?

Yes. Each site plan includes a list of all the tools we anticipate being needed at the site. You should plan bring any tools you have and are willing to allow youth to use (including power tools) during the project. Also note, each parish is being asked to provide tools for their site as well. This may either include or be brought in addition to the tools that belong to you.

Am I responsible for providing the materials needed for my project?

No. The Diocese will purchase all the materials for the project and have them available for you at the worksite at the beginning of the week. However, there may be times throughout the week where you will need to transport some of the materials to the work site. Although you are welcome to pay for additional materials as needed, this is not an expectation – we have accounts set up at local suppliers and our lead contractors are responsible for purchasing materials.

Should I bring my own vehicle?

Yes. You are responsible for your own transportation to and from the work sites. Ideally, you should bring a vehicle that can easily transport tools and other building materials.

Where will I be staying while at Work Camp?

This year, the Work Camp home base will be located at Peninsula Catholic High School in Newport News. The accommodations will be in classrooms so participants will need to bring an air mattress, sleeping bag, and pillow.

What is the schedule for the week?

Exterior projects (i.e. decks, porches, wheelchair ramps, etc.) involve either replacing an existing structure or building a new freestanding structure. Interior projects always involve renovations. We do not build additions or replace roof systems.

We understand that completing a project on your own and at your own pace is very different from teaching and managing high school students (often unskilled) to do the work within a specific timeline. With that in mind, please complete the following:

CONTRACTOR CODE OF CONDUCT

Contractors must read, understand, agree, sign, and return this sheet. Please be sure that all contractors in your group understand and abide by these policies.

Basic Role of Contractors

The Office for Evangelization depends on the Adults to help facilitate order and to serve as a network of support for the youth. It is important that the Adults be an example of obedience and cooperation with the following policies as well as with our staff and volunteers on site. Because of the physical demands of the Work Camp, it is necessary that Adults be in good health. It is a very intense week and can be exhausting both physically and spiritually. Because of these conditions, it is not recommended that those with health problems participate as Adults.

Work Camp Contractors lead Crews in home improvement projects. You do not need to be a licensed contractor or a professional, but you should be someone who is knowledgeable and experienced with home improvement. This means that you know how to safely operate a range of tools, have worked with different materials, and are able to teach others what you know.

Duties of a Contractor

A Contractor's responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the following areas:

I. Alcohol, Drugs, and Smoking

- ✓ All state laws concerning alcohol and drugs will be strictly enforced.
- Possession and/or consumption of alcohol or drugs are not permitted on site during the retreat.
- ✓ All Work Camp sites and buildings are smoke-free facilities.

2. Appropriate Dress

- ✓ All participants are expected to dress in a fashion that represents modesty, respecting other participants and our Lord.
- ✓ Clothing must cover all undergarments and midriffs. Participants must wear shirts at all times.
- ✓ The Contractors are expected to help Chaperones enforce the dress code at the work sites during the Work Camp.

3. Participation

- ✓ At no time should a youth participant leave the Work Camp without one of their adult Chaperones. Adults are strongly discouraged from taking youth off site, except in the case of an emergency.
- ✓ It is to be understood that the said adult takes full responsibility for a youth if they depart Work Camp.

4. Housing

- ✓ All youth and adults must be in the sleeping areas by the designated times. If you have questions about how this applies to Contractors as the work progresses, please talk to a Lead Contractor.
- ✓ An atmosphere of quiet and respect is expected following the lights out time. Violators will be subject to appropriate discipline.

5. Insubordination

- ✓ It is expected that youth and adults will follow the direction of all Work Camp staff and volunteers.
- Any instances of lack of cooperation or insubordination will not be tolerated and will be subject to appropriate discipline.
- ✓ The first and primary method of dealing with discipline problems will be to work through the Group Leader.

The Catholic Diocese of Richmond reserves the right to deny entrance to or request the ejection of any group or individual who does not comply with the regulations and policies for the Work Camp. In the event that entrance is denied, or a person(s) is ejected, NO REFUND will be made.

I have read, understand, and agree to the above policies. I will ensure that anyone accompanying me to the event also understands and agrees to these policies.
